Greetings to All Harpists in the North Central Region.

I am honored to be your Regional Director at this exciting time in the life of the American Harp Society. Please let me know how I can facilitate communications between and among harpists in the Region. This Newsletter is one means of spreading the word among all the chapters in the Region, but it comes only once a year. There will be a second, email-only, message in the spring, so it is vitally important that we have accurate email addresses for all harpists.

We send this newsletter to let you know about harp-happenings that are closer and less expensive (some are even free!) than the National meetings that are coming up. Please let me know of new items that arise so I can include them in the spring email blast. And don't forget to send me your accurate email address.

From the Jubal Harp Group, in South Dakota

South Dakota harpists Anna Vorhes, Janice Graber, Grace Gering, Alexandra Stanley and Erin Hoiland attended the American Harp Society Conference in Tacoma, Washington, in July. While they were in Tacoma, several of them met with former South Dakotan Cynthia Alvine Phillips Zechmann for dinner. All returned home motivated to practice!

Augustana senior Erin Hoiland presented her senior recital October 16. Works performed included Tournier's Au Matin, Dussek Sonata in C, Salzedo Song in the Night and several other solos.

Anna Vorhes collaborated with friends to present a recital to celebrate the 40th anniversary of her first harp lesson. Nell Holland joined her to play Baroque flute, Dennis Knutson played regular flute, Cheryl Koch sang, and Scott Johnson played bass viol. Works performed solo included La

Harpe Eolienne by Felix Godefroid and Milonga del Angel by Piazzola, transcribed by Maria Luisa Rayan Ferraro.

Sioux Falls harpist Alexandra Stanley is a freshman at the University of Arizona where she is double majoring in harp with Dr. Carrol McLaughlin and piano with Dr. Paula Fan.

Sioux Falls harpist Ann McLaughlin is a junior at the University of North Texas in Denton. She was chosen a finalist in their concerto competition. Her teacher there is former South Dakotan Dr. Jaymee Schmuck Haefner.

The Minnesota Chapter reports:

The Minnesota Chapter is hosting Kim Robertson for a concert and workshop in November. We are looking forward to hearing her and learning from her inspiring knowledge base on arranging and composing for the pedal and celtic harp.

Also this coming Spring we will be hosting a dynamic duo, "True North". True North is an accomplished duo comprised of Lynne Aspnes and John Wicky. They will be sharing their talents with a concert, followed by an intense hands on workshop. We look forward to this exciting event.

Several harp ensemble performances we given in Central Minnesota by a group known as Shareharp. Sharon Kimball as lead harpist and director participated with some of her students to bring programs to a Fine Arts event May 4, 2010 in Princeton (a duo with Anne Ewing), programs for senior centers June 24 (quartet with Alexander Ames, Donna Forge and Hannah Kellerman) and October 5 (trio with Anne Ewing and Amy Filipczak) in Sartell, and a Praise and Worship service (trio with Amy Filipczak and David VanVeldhuizen -hammered dulcimer) near Clear Lake on August 22. What a privilege to share the beauty of harp in so many different settings.

Shari Rothman is hosting a recital for students on Dec. 4th at Ridgepoint Care Center. (It is just east of Ridgedale Center in Minnetonka). If you have any students who would like to perform a piece or two, please contact Shari, sharirothmand@comcast.net. This is a great, low stress opportunity for a performance experience. I highly recommend it.

Harpourri, a newly organized harp quartet featuring Andrea Stern, Min Kim, Elinor Niemisto, and Jann Stein, have presented several concerts this year: They included a variety of music, original and transcribed, for harp quartet. From keyboard music of the Baroque period to jazzy show tunes, South American sambas and tangos, Celtic and sacred, these harpists perform an eclectic range of music that is enjoyed by all audiences.

From the Milwaukee Chapter:

The September 26th annual meeting included a report on the Tacoma Conference, a viewing of parts of Steve Moss' Harp Repair video, along with a video of a chapter recital from the 1980s at the Rose Garden in Boerner Botanical Gardens.

The annual holiday party will once again be at the home of Chris Bryke and Tony Garber, at 6:30 on January 7th, 2011. Members will each provide 5-10 minutes of music and an appetizer to share.

On March 20th, 2011, solo harpist Janelle Jansen Lake (former student of Gerry Elliott) will present a recital for us at the Wauwatosa Presbyterian Church, at 4:00pm. Janelle finished her master's at Northwestern University and is teaching at the University of Chicago and at Sherwood Conservatory.

Our chapter recital will be held on April 10th this coming year. Members are encouraged to perform a solo and/or join the ensemble.

On May 15th, our chapter will sponsor a student recital/scholarship event. Teachers who have advanced level students are invited to enter them in this recital. A panel will choose the scholarship winner(s) for that day.

In December Ann Lobotzke will be playing Ceremony of Carols with the Cardinal Stritch University Chorus, a harp and flute Christmas program with flutist Marie Sander, and "Nutcracker" with the Milwaukee Ballet. She started the ballet season with the highly successful run of the ballet "Esmeralda". Her private students will be participating in a recital on Sunday, February 20th.

University of Wisconsin Milwaukee students Juliana Henry and Margaret Ingraham have been kept busy learning parts to Wagner "Tristan and Isolde Prelude and Love Death", Mahler Symphony #1, and Vaughan Williams "In Windsor Forest".
